Victims Tell How Munroe, of Stockless-Wireless Fame,

Was "Mr. Hill."

The inquiry to-day in the trial before Judge Hough in the United States Circult Court of George H. Munroe was into that portion of the nine indictments of twenty-edd counts, which charge Munroe with using the mails for swindling purposes in the sale of stocks in the United Shoe Shining Company. This so-called "Boothlack Trust" is described as a complete swindle, the schemers being said to have put every cent of the subscriptions in their own Under letter heads of "Nell Ward & Co., Marbridge Building, Broadway and Thirty-fourth street," this business was enducted, and apparently a directory of New York physicians was ransacked

for proposed victims.

The scheme was worked, according to the testimony of several physicians, by an initial call on the intended victim by H. V. Johnson, canvassing agent of Nell Ward & Company, accompanied by a man who was intro-duced as "Mr. Hill." George H. Munroe was identified by each witness as "Mr. Hill," who knew all about the United Shoe Shining Company, which was to have a chain of shoe polishing stands all over the Metropolitan distriot. The intended victim was told that two stands were already in operation, in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Building and in the Fifth Avenue Building, and there was promise of a gold mine in the business. This visit followed an alluring letter from "Neil Ward & Company," and another letter succeeded the call, pucceeded the call.

Dr. Harris Smith of No. 5 West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street bought 1,000 shares of "Boot Black Trust" stock, paying 35 cents a share Dr. Albro R. Carmen of No. 27 West One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street bought 200 shares, "Mr. Hill turning to Mr. Johnson in his office when the Doctor hestitude and the Street bought 200 shares, "Mr. Hill turning to Mr. Johnson in his office when the Doctor hestitude and the Street bought 200 shares, "Mr. Hill turning to Mr. Johnson in his office when the Doctor hestitude and the Street bought and the St when the Doctor hesitated and saying, "Why not waive your commission on the sale?" which Johnson did.

the sale?" which Johnson did.

Dr. Charles A. Clinton of No. 112
West One Hundred and Thirty-first street also was "stung" for 2550 for 1,000 shares. He was informed that 1.000 maniture girls would be employed by the "Trust" at the shoe polishing slands.

Neil Ward is a young clerk for Munroe who was in court as a witness against Muncoe. He said he was inno-cent of the use of his name.
